

Herald Cameramen Tell Their Story

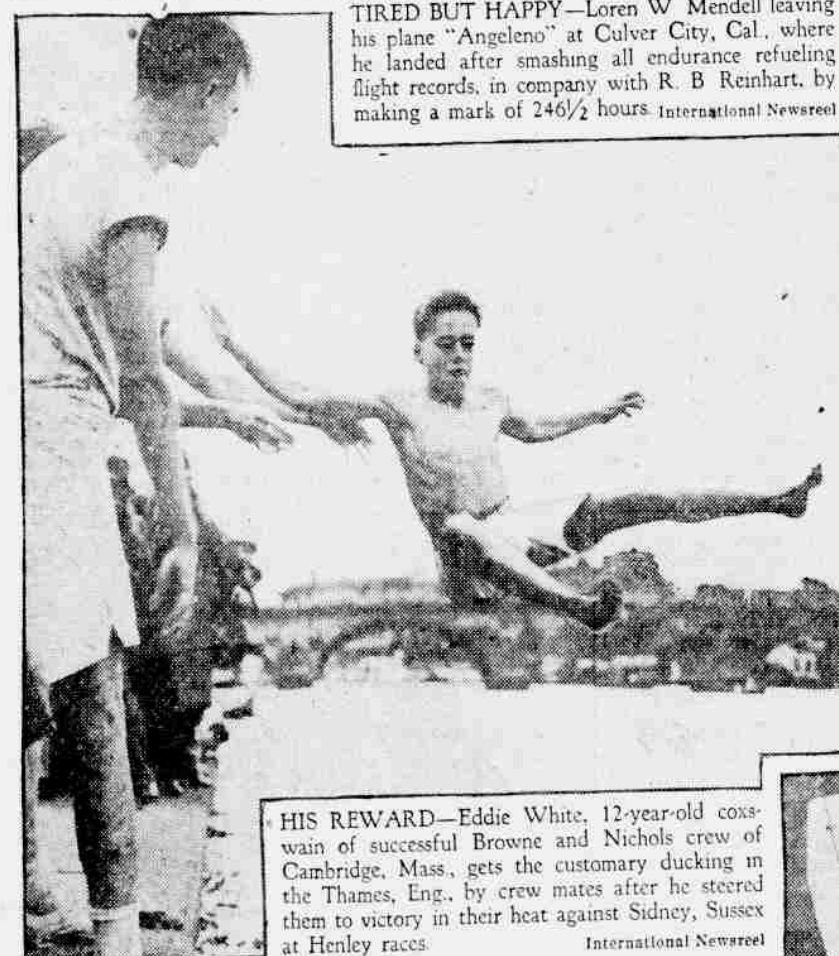

TIRED BUT HAPPY—Loren W. Mendell leaving his plane "Angeleno" at Culver City, Cal., where he landed after smashing all endurance refueling flight records, in company with R. B. Reinhart, by making a mark of 246½ hours. International Newsreel

SPANISH FLIERS GET OVATION—Commander Franco, Gallarza, Ruiz de Alda and Madariga, trans-atlantic flight crew, are center of excited mob at Madrid, Spain, receiving welcome after being rescued near Azores, where they had been adrift eight days in their plane, and were first spotted by Killroy, English flier. International Newsreel

WINS SHOT PUT EVENT—Eleanor Egg, of St. Bonaventure's Lyceum, winner of shot put event at Senior Women's Track and Field championships held at Gen. George W. Wingate Field in Brooklyn, N. Y. International Newsreel

HIS REWARD—Eddie White, 12-year-old coxswain of successful Browne and Nichols crew of Cambridge, Mass., gets the customary ducking in the Thames, Eng., by crew mates after he steered them to victory in their heat against Sidney, Sussex at Henley races. International Newsreel

TO MAKE ROUND TRIP OF U. S.—Capt. E. C. Nelson, left, and Capt. Roy Ammel, former Army pilots, plan non-stop, refueling flight from Chicago to Pacific Coast, thence to Atlantic Coast, and back to Chicago, a distance of approximately 7,000 miles, which they hope to make in 60 hours at a cruising speed of 120 miles per hour. International Newsreel

PROUD—Mrs. Margaret Yancey, center, mother of Capt. Lewis A. Yancey, navigator of the "Pathfinder," Mrs. Ruby Pierson, right, his sister, and Ruby Pierson, left, his niece, are rejoicing in their Chicago home over Lewis' triumph from Old Orchard, Me., to Rome. International Newsreel

OF AGE NOW—Portrait taken on 21st birthday of H. R. Prince Henri, Comte de Paris, son of Duc de Guise and pretender to the French throne, at Manoir D'Anjou near Brussels, where the birthday reception was held. International Newsreel

AIR TRAGEDY—Death claimed Major Idzikowsky, at left, when his plane, "Graciosa," crashed at Graciosa, Azores Is., in Paris New York hop. Major Kubala, extreme left, was seriously injured. International Newsreel

HAS THE LAST WORD—When Joe Nikrent times a race or endurance flight, it stays timed, for he's official timer of National Aeronautic Ass'n., at Los Angeles and Washington Bureau of Standards takes his word for it, too. Inset shows barograph record of Question Mark's flight. International Newsreel

SAFE AT AZORES—When Alain Gerbault, French sportsman, left New York for Havre in his little boat "Firecrest," anxiety was felt for his safety until he showed up at Horta, Fayal Azores, from which place he is shown leaving for Havre in time to meet the French fleet due there soon. International Newsreel

WISDOM SAVES THEIR LIVES—Realizing that violent head wind was holding their ground speed so low that their gasoline supply could not last until they reached America from Paris, Maurice Bellonte, left, and Dieudonne Costes turned back at the Azores and reached France in safety. International Newsreel

NEW RECORD—Sidney B. Kieselhorst, of Yale, wins 100-yard dash in 10 2/5 seconds at the Yale-Harvard, Oxford-Cambridge track meet held in Harvard Stadium at Cambridge, Mass., a new record for this meet. International Newsreel